TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL NORTHWEST SCHOOL FARMERS' WEEK AND WOMEN'S MEETING

February 8-12, 1932

This issue of the Northwest Monthly carries a number of interesting announcements regarding the Twenty-Second Annual Northwest School Farmers' Week and Red River Valley Winter Shows, which will be held February 8-12, 1932. Much of the preliminary work has already been done, with final plans rapidly nearing completion.

Railroads have granted the lowest round trip fares ever offered during Winter Shows Week. Special day programs are being arranged for the men, the women, and the boys and girls, while nationally known speakers will address the mass meetings which will be held each evening in the local Armory.

Winter Shows activities are unique in that there will be no side shows and no games of chance. Every feature is strictly educational. It is the one outstanding educational week insofar as Northwestern Minnesota is concerned.

Monday has been designated livestock and farm crops judging day, when teams from three states and Canada will compete for silver trophies and other prizes.

The Rural School Spelling contest is another educational feature of far reaching importance. Champion spellers from thirteen Northwestern Minnesota counties will compete for the championship of the Red River Valley on the closing day of the week.

Fifty speakers and judges have been engaged for the various programs and contests, thus insuring an unusual opportunity for visitors to acquaint themselves with the more important problems of the day.

RAILROADS GRANT REDUCED RATES

An open rate of fare and one-third from all points in Minnesota, North Dakota and Wisconsin to Crookston and return has been granted by the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroads for the week of the Red River Valley Winter Shows. Tickets will be on sale February 6 to 12 inclusive with the final return limit, February 15, 1932. Winter Shows officials state that this is the lowest fare ever offered on regular trains during these mid-winter shows and meetings. In addition to the reduced rates for adults, children under five years of age or over and under twelve, will pay half the special rates.

Special stops on through trains are also being arranged for the convenience of Winter Shows visitors.

DEAN W. C. COFFEY

Who has attended every Winter Show for the past ten years, will again assist with the program of the week.

Honors Announced At Awards Assembly

At the annual "Awards Assembly" held on the last Thursday of the fall term, members of the 1931 championship football team were awarded letters and service bars, while summer home project winners were presented with the championship silver trophies. This is one of the most impressive gatherings of the year, for everyone is interested in just who is to receive the various honor awards.

Mr. George D. Wight, in charge of the boys' home project work, awarded the Wallace Drug Company's silver trophy to Emil Hoppe, Warren, a senior student, for his excellent work on a plant identification project. Paul Sorenson, Hallock, was given honorable mention for his tractor project.

Miss Retta Bede, in charge of the girls' home project work, awarded the silver trophy to Margaret Gault, Winnipeg, Canada, a senior, for the outstanding girls' project completed during the past summer.

Following the home project awards, Coach R. J. Christgau made the football awards to the 1931 champions. Service bars were given to Captain Kenneth Avery, Hallock; Edwin Widseth, McIntosh; Stanley Radniecki, Trail; Mervin Hagen, Underwood; Erling Strand, Twin Valley; Arnold Strand, Twin Valley, and John Pearson, Middle River. Letters were awarded for the first time to Leo Maattala, Oklee; Alvin Gronner, Underwood; Clarence Carlson, Stephen; Alfred Torkelson, Stephen; Kermit Greenley, Viking; Phillip LeMasurier, Crookston; Walter Dorseth, Twin Valley; Allan Hoff, Dalton; Donald Anderson, Perley, and Orin Refling, Fertile.

Captain Kenneth Avery was also awarded the captain's star as well as the Ruettell sweater, the latter being presented by Captain Mickle Bang.

TERM CLOSES WITH GET-TOGETHER DINNER

As a finale to the first semester's activities, Northwest School students and faculty held their annual get-together Christmas dinner in the school dining hall Thursday, December 18. An excellent menu, a beautifully decorated Christmas tree and a splendid program, made the dinner one of the most enjoyable ever held.

NEW STUDENTS MAY ENTER JANUARY 4

Work is so arranged at the Northwest School that new students may enter at the opening of the winter term Monday, January 4. In many cases students were not able to attend during the fall due to the pressure of home work, but they can be spared during the winter months. As the winter term closes March 24, students will be home in time for the regular spring work. The Northwest School offers unusual opportunities for the young men and women of Northwestern Minnesota to continue their education.

Courses Offered

Girls may select courses in dress-making, foods and cookery, nursing, English, mathematics, history, spelling, and penmanship. Boys' courses include courses in English, spelling, penmanship, livestock, dairying, poultry, farm crops, arithmetic, shop work, motors, farm machinery, horticulture, and history. Special instruction in voice, piano or violin, in addition to opportunities offered by membership in the glee clubs, choruses, or orchestra will also be available to new students.

Expenses

Total expenses for the term should not exceed $80.00. This includes board, room, flat laundry, textbooks, health service, and entertainment.

School Equipment

The school has three dormitories, a dining hall, a recitation hall, one building for domestic science, art and music, health service building, one building for the library, auditorium, and offices, engineering building, physical education building, in addition to barns and other special equipment. All laboratories and classrooms have excellent equipment for class work, while the station herds and the experiment station projects add to the material available.

Entrance Requirements

Students may come who have finished the common school. Those who have not yet completed the common school may come if they are sixteen years of age. Students from other schools above the common school are admitted and their credits applied on the regular course.

When to Come

The winter term opens for registration Monday, January 4, and closes March 24, 1932. The school bus will meet all trains on January 4 and transport all students, together with their baggage, direct to the school dormitories. Classes begin Tuesday, January 5, at 8:15 A. M. Special classes will be arranged for new students and all credits earned during the winter term will be applied on the total requirement for graduation.

WIDSETH ELECTED FOOTBALL CAPTAIN

Edwin Widseth, McIntosh, 215-pound fullback on the 1931 football team, was honored by his teammates when he was elected captain of the 1932 eleven at a recent football dinner held at the home of Coach and Mrs. R. J. Christgau. Widseth is a third year student at the school and has played on Aggie teams for the past three seasons. Starring as a tackle during his freshman year, he played a strong game on the line. During his second season he alternated between line and backfield. When the 1931 season began, Coach Christgau stationed Widseth at fullback where he has starred in every game played by the maroon and gold. Football fans who have seen Widseth in action claim that he is one of the greatest undergraduate fullbacks ever developed in Northwestern Minnesota. His combination of weight and speed led to touchdowns in every game of the season.

Widseth is active in many extra-curricular activities, being president of his class, President of the Y. M. C. A., Advertising manager of the school annual, and a member of the mixed chorus and boys' glee club. Last year he played one of the leading roles in the school operetta.

FACULTY PARTY

ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

The annual Northwest School faculty Christmas party was held at the Superintendent's residence Wednesday evening, December 17. The program for the evening's entertainment consisted of various games followed by the distribution of Christmas gifts, each carrying a verse composed by a member of the faculty.

A clay modeling contest and a hat making contest proved to be the most exciting and were the source of much fun. Superintendent A. A. Dowell, acting as judge of the clay modeling contest, encountered much difficulty in selecting the prize piece of sculpture, the award finally going to Mrs. R. S. Dunham on her "Dove of Peace."

The hat making contest proved to be exceedingly interesting and amusing. Five couples were selected as contestants. To each man was given scissors and crepe paper with instructions to model a hat upon a lady's head. The pairings were: Superintendent A. A. Dowell and Miss Cynthia Weinberger; Mr. R. J. Christgau and Miss Grace Warne; Mr. A. M. Foker and Miss Fanny Lippitt; Mr. S. A. Anderson and Mrs. T. M. McCall; Mr. D. C. McGenty and Mrs. R. J. Christgau. After fifteen minutes of cutting paper, pinning and shaping of hats, the contestants called upon Mr. George Wight for a decision. Again there was considerable discussion of the merits and demerits of each model and finally the contest was called a draw between Superintendent Dowell and Mr. McGenty.

Following the serving of refreshments, each faculty member was presented with a gift. Original poems, composed especially for the gift, were found in each package and read to all.

The committees in charge of the party were: Refreshment committee—Mrs. Kiser, Mrs. Christgau, Mrs. Wight, Mrs. Dowell, Miss Bede; Christmas tree—Mr. Foker, Mr. Anderson, Miss Kingston, Miss Hughbanks; Entertainment—Mr. Mlinar, Mr. McCall, Miss Warne, Mr. McGenty, Miss Hines.

of Winter Shows Week.

Three separate contests will be staged in the livestock section: one for farm club judging teams, another for agricultural high school teams, and a third for the Schools of Agriculture from Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Canada. Teams from three states and Canada are also expected to take part in the School of Agriculture crops judging contest.

Judges of the livestock contests include Wm. E. Morris, livestock specialist, and C. L. McNelly, District County Agent leader, both from University Farm, St. Paul; C. M. Kelehan, county agent, Fergus Falls; Wm. Page, county agent, Grand Forks, and R. M. Douglass, county agent, Thief River Falls. In the crops sections, Professor R. F. Crim and Dr. H. K. Wilson will serve as judges, with Dr. Wilson as supervisor.

STUDENTS ENJOY

THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

Thanksgiving Day at the Northwest School was celebrated in typical pioneer style—rest, feasting, and a special program in which all had an opportunity to express thankfulness for the many blessings that had been conferred upon us as individuals and as an institution during the past year. From the turkey dinner to the last number on the program, it was a day that will long be remembered by faculty and students alike.

The dining hall made a beautiful setting for the festive occasion with tables decorated by groups of students who competed for special prizes. The dinner menu included grapefruit cherry cocktail, roast turkey with dressing, giblet gravy, fluffed potatoes, buttered peas, jellied cranberries, celery, pickled pears, crusty rolls and butter, banana nut salad on lettuce with pineapple dressing, honey crested pumpkin pie, and Autumn fruits.

Following the dinner all adjourned to the school auditorium where the stage was set for the afternoon program. The reading of the proclamation was given by Eleanor Torkelson, Crookston, followed by selections "March Romaine," "The Lotus Flower" and "Indian Boy" by the school orchestra under the direction of Miss Rose Polski; address "The Meaning of Thanksgiving" by Superintendent A. A. Dowell; vocal solo "Just for Today" by Lowell Ryden, Hallock; reading by Norman Moen, Gary; piano solo "Minute" by Paderewski by Donald McCall, Crookston; selection from "Mikado" by the girls' trio composed of Virginia Harding, Crookston; Helen Carlson, Halstad, and Esther Torgerson, Fosston; poem "Thanksgiving" by Agatha Olson, Beltrami; selection "Our Flag Will Never Fall" by the boys' glee club; the Priscilla Procession by Northwest School girls under the direction of Mrs. Roy Hollander, and a selection "From an Indian Lodge" by the school orchestra.

The closing feature of the program was a play, an Indian Legend "Carved Woman" given under the direction of Miss Cynthia Weinberger, head of the English department. Members of the cast were Considerate Man, Leo Maattala, Oklee; Singing Man, Grant Washburn, Crookston, and Carved Woman, Frances McKibbin, Lancaster. Costumes for the play were furnished by the Red Lake Indian Agency, Red Lake, Minnesota through the courtesy of Superintendent J. C. Cavill.

tions by the school orchestra under the direction of Miss Rose Polski. Following the dinner short speeches were made by a representative from each class. Jerome Molacek, Ulen, speaking for the freshmen class, had as his theme "The People"; Richard Holmgren, Carp, Junior, discussed "The Priests"; Olive Heegard, Crookston, senior, told of "The Poets"; and Arthur Hendrickson, Fosston, advanced, talked of "The Prophets." Miss Leona Hines responded for the faculty, her topic being, "The Philosopher." Special music numbers were rendered by the boys' quartette, composed of Lowell Ryden, Hallock; Russell Knudtson, Crookston; Helmer Nornes, Lockhart; and Edwin Widseth, McIntosh; Christmas carols by campus children; selections by the girls' chorus; a selection by the faculty ensemble, composed of Mrs. R. W. Hollander, Miss Rose Polski, Miss Fae Hughbanks, vocalists, Miss Grace Warne, violinist, and Mr. R. S. Dunham, pianist.

Miss Fanny Lippitt, dining hall matron, served the following menu: Tropical flavors, the fatted calf, Ireland's favorite, brown gravy, buttered evergreen balls, fruit of the olive tree, wintergreens, shimmering island, the staff of life, golden squares, Yuletide salad, creamy snow balls, fresh strawberries, and candy wafers.

DEBATE WORK UNDER WAY

Coach D. C. McGenty reports keen interest in the preliminary debate try-outs held during the closing days of the fall term. Students who were finally selected to form the nucleus of the inter-school debate squad include: Jean Nisbet, East Grand Forks; Paul Hanson, Crookston; Dayton Hanson, Fertile; Edward Sargent, Crookston; Richard Holmgren, Carp; Clinton Donley, Fergus Falls; Kermit Greenley, Viking; Donald McCall, Crookston; John Pearson, Middle River, and Darwin Krogman, Crookston.

Others who tried out were William Ardell, Twin Valley; Virginia Harding, Crookston; Paul Ingebretson, Ulen; Oscar Larson, Crookston; Harold Letnes, Hillsboro, N. D.; Rodney Lindstrom, Lake Park; Clarence Peterson, Hawley; Llewellyn Reese, Park Rapids; James Rynning, Kennedy; William Sitko, Ada; Grant Washburn, Crookston; Wendell Washburn, Rugby, N. D.; Clarence Weckwerth, Hazel; Melvin Gilbertson, Lake Park, and Harriet Severson, Clearbrook.

The climax of the season's debate work will be the annual clash between the three agricultural schools, St. Paul, Morris, and Crookston. This year the Crookston negative will travel to St. Paul, while the Morris negative will meet the Crookston affirmative on the local floor.

Y. M. C. A.—Y. W. C. A. SPONSOR MEETINGS

Religious activities on the Northwest School Campus center around the work of the Young Men's and the Young Women's Christian associations. Bible classes are held each Sunday morning, conducted by members of the faculty, while community service is held on Sunday evenings under the joint auspices of the two organizations. Music is furnished by members of the Music department or by groups of students. Speakers include ministers and others interested in the religious activities of young people.

Early in the term the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. held a joint reception for new students. The first Sunday evening program was presented in the form of a Sacred Concert by members of the Music and English departments. Miss Rose Polski opened the program with a piano solo, "Chopin's Scherzo No. 2," followed by a reading, "In Nazareth" by Miss Leona Hines; a vocal solo "Ave Maria" by Mrs. Roy Hollander; the reading of a one-act play "The Lord's Prayer" by Miss Cynthia Weinberger; and a violin solo "Romance" from a concerto by Wieniawski by Miss Grace Warne.

Sunday evening speakers included Reverend P. C. Sorenson, local American Sunday School missionary; Reverend P. E. Moen, pastor of the Norwegian Lutheran church; Reverend R. M. Vordale, pastor of the English Lutheran church; Reverend E. A. Schuett and the Church choir from Our Savior's Lutheran church, and Mr. Denis McGenty, Northwest School debate coach. Special student programs were also presented under the direction of Miss Cynthia Weinberger, head of the English department; a program by the Boy Scouts of the Northwest School, assisted by Scout Leader E. L. Ocock; and a Christmas program by the Sanford Literary society with Miss Fae Hughbanks and Miss Elsie Mae Kingston in charge.

Officers for the year include Edwin Widseth, McIntosh, president of the Y. M. C. A.; Harry Tangen, Menahga, vice president, and Ingolf Swanson, Alvarado, secretary-treasurer.

Y. W. C. A.—Orpha Johnson, Hawley, president; Tumina Slette, Twin Valley, vice president; and Violet Solmonson, Thief River Falls, secretary-treasurer.

JUNIORS WIN SONG CONTEST

Members of the Junior Class carried off championship honors in the Fourteenth Annual Inter-Class Song contest held in the school auditorium Saturday evening, December 12. Each class sang the same three songs under the direction of their song leader and accompanied by a member of the class. Songs included God Ever Glorious! Sovereign of Nations, All Through the Night, and Jingle Bells. Leaders and directors were selected as follows: Freshmen: Clarence Skaren, East Grand Forks, director; Helen Carlson, Halstad, accompanist; Juniors: Rodney Lindstrom, Lake Park, director; Harriet Severson, Clearbrook, accompanist; Seniors: Norman Moen, Gary, director; Esther Torgerson, Fosston, accompanist; Advanced: Lowell Ryden, Hallock, director; Donald McCall, Crookston, accompanist.

Professor Hywel C. Rowland, head of the Music department of the University of North Dakota, together with Mrs. Carol Miles Humpstone, and Miss Emily Bel Nash of Grand Forks, served in the capacity of judges and awarded the Selvig silver trophy to the winning class at the close of the evening's program.

This was the second time in the history of the school that this coveted honor was captured by the Junior class. The Advanced class won second place, Freshman third, and Seniors fourth, in what was considered the closest contest in years.

DRAMA CLASS PRESENT PLAYS

Three different plays have been presented during the fall term by members of the Northwest School drama class under the direction of Miss Cynthia Weinberger, head of the English department. On Parents' Day a comedy farce "The Trysting Place" was given with Elizabeth Erickson, Marine on St. Croix; Orville Hovelson, Gary; Emerald Abbott, Mentor; Virginia Harding, Crookston; Edwin Myers, Warroad; Helmer Nornes, Lockhart, and Kermit Greenley, Viking, taking part. On the special Thanksgiving Day program, a fantasy "Carved Woman" was staged by Leo Maattala, Oklee; Grant Washburn, Crookston, and Frances McKibbin, Lancaster.

Sunday evening, December 6, members of the class working out a re-Night at an Inn" by Lord Dunsany, who is considered one of England's leading dramatists. This was also arranged as a class project, with members of the class working out a realistic stage setting. The characters included Arthur Burk, Brooks; Kermit Greenley, Viking; Lloyd Chapman, Crookston; Wendell Washburn, Rugby, North Dakota; Edwin Widseth, McIntosh; Estelle Philipp, Mavie; Carrie Buck, Crookston, and Arlene Hill, Brooks.

CHRISTGAU STARTS BASKETBALL PRACTICE

A strenuous schedule of twelve games has been announced for the 1931-32 basketball season by Coach R. J. Christgau. Games have been arranged as follows: December 11, Thief River Falls, there; December 17, Bemidji Teachers College, here; January 11, Bemidji Teachers College, there; January 15, Park Region College of Fergus Falls, there; January 23, Park Region College, here; January 28, Thief River Falls, here; February 5 and 6, Grand Rapids Aggies, there; February 12, Alumni; February 27, St. Paul Aggies, here; March 4 and 5, Morris Aggies, here. This schedule gives Northwest School rooters a total of seven home games.

The St. Paul Aggies will come to the Northwest School for the first time this year and local followers of the sport are looking forward to an exceedingly interesting game. Christgau's men snatched a 25-23 victory from the St. Paul outfit on the St. Paul floor last year, so that the down state quint will be out for revenge in this year's encounter. The two games with Morris, March 4 and 5, are other conference contests to be played in the Northwest School gymnasium. Conference games away from home will be played at Grand Rapids, February 5 and 6.

Fifty candidates, including five lettermen, reported for the initial workouts. Lettermen who are back are Kenneth Avery, and Alvin Gronner, guards; Rudy Berger, and Arnold Wolden, forwards, and Clarence Carlson, center. The latter was not in school last year but during the 1929-30 season showed much promise as reserve center.

After the first week of practice the squad was reduced to the following 23 players: Kenneth Avery, Hallock; Donald Anderson, Perley; Rudy Berger, Greenbush; Clarence Carlson, Stephen; Clarence Clementson, Erskine; Alvin Gronner, Underwood; Mervin Hagen, Underwood; Arthur Hendrickson, Fosston; Halbert Johnson, Underwood; Reynold Johnson, Kennedy; Rodney Lindstrom, Lake Park; Leo Maattala, Oklee; Searle Nelson, Underwood; Miles Nelson, Frazee; Jewel Nelson, Shelly; Stanley Radniecki, Trail; Elmer Ross, Fisher; Arnold and Erling Strand, Twin Valley; Vernon Stenerson, Dalton; Alfred Torkelson, Stephen; Arnold Wolden, Saum, and Clarence Weckwerth, Hazel.

In the two games played just before the holiday season the Aggies were defeated by Thief River Falls, 37-16, and the Bemidji Teachers College, 33-10. In the past Aggie basketball teams have improved rapidly with the opening of the winter term, and Northwest School rooters are consequently looking forward to another successful basketball season.

OH, DOCTOR! TO BE PRESENTED IN JANUARY

"Oh, Doctor!" an operetta in two acts, has been selected by Mrs. Roy Hollander as the principal musical production of the year. The operetta will be presented January 29 and 30 by the mixed chorus, the boys' glee club and the girls' glee club. Local music lovers will recall the excellent production, "The Sunbonnet Girl" presented last year at the Northwest School.

The books and lyrics of the operetta are by Estelle Merryman Clark, with the music written by Palmer John Clark. Many clever lines and many catchy tunes make the operetta one of the most delightful for undergraduate production. The scene is laid somewhere east of the Rio Grande, not far from the border separating Mexico from the United States. Mexican tunes and costumes add much color to the production.

Tryouts for the principal parts have been held and Mrs. Hollander expects to announce the main cast within the next few days.

VALLEY WINS HONORS AT INTERNATIONAL

Fifteen awards in the crops division of the recent International Hay and Grain Show at Chicago were made to exhibitors from the Red River Valley. Six of these exhibitors won additional special awards offered by the Red River Valley Crops and Soils association, according to R. S. Dunham, secretary of the organization. The following received such awards: Arthur Norum, Hallock, $25.00 for wheat; Ephraim Hagen, McIntosh, $25.00 for oats; Carl G. Ash, St. Vincent, $15.00 for flax; Elmer O. Johnson, Newfolden, $10.00 for flax; Wagner and Bevers, Ada, $5.00 for flax, and W. F. Tullar, Warren, $10.00 for sweet clover.

The remaining exhibitors who won at the International were: Mrs. Louis Johnson, Fergus Falls; Harry Ophus, Erskine, and Martin Narum, Fosston, corn; Peter Schirrick, Red Lake Falls, wheat, sweet clover, and flax; Pioneer Land & Loan Co., Warren, sweet clover;

Wagner and Bevers, Ada, sweet clover; Simon Breiland, Hazel, sweet clover.

VALLEY DAIRYMEN HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The twenty-eighth Annual Convention of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association was held at Fergus Falls Wednesday, November 4. Speakers included Governor Floyd B. Olson; Dr. C. H. Eckles; Chief of the Dairy division, University Farm; R. A. Trovatten, Commissioner, State Agriculture, Dairy and Food Department; John Brandt, President, Land O' Lakes Creameries, Inc.; Axel W. Meyerton, President, Northwest Creamery Owners association; W. W. Sherman, Secretary, Farmers Cooperative Creameries of Minnesota; and T. T. Bacheller, Minnesota Dairy Council.

In addition to the two large bronze tablets awarded to first and second prize winners in the attendance contest, suitable prizes were also announced for winners in the butter scoring contest.

Officers of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association, which is the oldest organization of its kind in Northwestern Minnesota, include A. A. Dowell, Superintendent of the Northwest School of Agriculture, President; H. E. Osgood, Erhard, Vice President; Stuart McLeod, Thief River Falls, vice president; O. O. Heggeness, Detroit Lakes, Treasurer, and C. M. Pesek, Crookston, secretary.

RATIONS FOR WINTER EGG PRODUCTION

Trials carried on at the Northwest Experiment Station, under the direction of A. M. Pilkey, poultryman, indicate that Minnesota farm flocks can produce eggs at a profit when fed rations consisting of home grown grains plus the required protein supplements.

Results of three years feeding trials show that a combination of at least two common farm grains fed as scratch grain and as grain mash, plus 15% meat meal, one-half of 1% iodized salt, 2% charcoal and 1% of good grade poultry cod liver oil, will make a satisfactory ration for winter egg production. Of the various combinations used in these trials, equal parts of wheat and barley gave the highest average returns. Corn may be used to advantage if not too high priced compared to other grains especially during cold weather.

During the past year the feed cost of producing eggs was on the average about one-third the cost two years ago and about one-half the cost last year, while the market value of eggs is now on a par with last year's price and three-fourths the price prevailing two years ago. Average egg prices for November 1929 were 40c per dozen. In 1930 eggs dropped to 25c per dozen, while November eggs this year will average better than 27c. Mr. Pilkey is of the opinion that the poultry outlook is brighter than it has been for a number of years.

BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE RED RIVER VALLEY WINTER SHOWS

W. R. Low, Secretary, Minnesota Red River Valley Development Association, Crookston; C. M. Pesek, Secretary, Red River Valley Dairymen's Association, Crookston; R. S. Dunham, Secretary, Red River Valley Crops and Soils Association, Crookston; Lee R. Boyd, Honorary Director, Crookston; A. A. Dowell, President, Northwest School, Crookston; F. A. Green, Vice President, Red River Valley Livestock Association, Stephen; E. W. Spring, Superintendent of Admissions, Crookston; C. L. McNelly, University Farm, St. Paul; H. A. THE RED RIVER VALLEY CLASSIC

Plans and preparations for the twenty-second annual Northwest School Farmers' Week and Women's meetings are under way. Outstanding speakers have been secured for four evening meetings, and the Northwestern Minnesota Singers' association group of 160 male voices for Friday. In addition, leading experts and authorities will speak on livestock, crops, farm marketing, and community problems at the forenoon and afternoon sessions each day.

The Red River Valley Winter Shows will be held during the same week under the auspices of the Red River Valley Livestock association, the Minnesota Red River Valley Development association, the Red River Valley Crops and Soils association, and the Northern Minnesota Poultry association, all of which are given the benefit of the active cooperation and assistance of the Crookston Association of Public Affairs, and local service, women's and farm clubs. The meetings are held in the Armory, while the women have demonstrations and meetings daily in the Presbyterian church.

The shows and exhibits are held in the three downtown buildings owned by the Red River Valley Livestock association, which has 2608 members.

CHAMPION SPELLERSTO ATTEND WINTER SHOWS

Rural school students from thirteen Northwestern Minnesota counties have already begun work on the annual Rural School Spelling contest which will culminate in the championship spelldown to be held the closing day of Winter Shows Week, February 12, 1932.

During the latter part of January and early February, champion spellers will be selected in each county. County champions will then attend the final spelldown at Crookston with all expenses paid by the Winter Shows management. A championship trophy as well as other prizes will also be awarded. Counties taking part in the contest include Becker, Clay, Clearwater, Kittson, Mahnomen, Marshall, Norman, Ottertail, Pennington, Polk, Red Lake, Roseau, and Wilkin.

The 1932 contest will be in charge of the following committee: Adolph Stenseth, county superintendent, Norman county; Miss Erba Pouliot, county superintendent, Red Lake county, and E. E. Billberg, county superintendent, Roseau county.

Allen Stehman, Becker county, was declared the champion speller of the Red River Valley last year. Two years ago eleven-year-old Morris Engelstad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Engelstad of Thief River Falls, Pennington county, won championship honors. Morris is now in attendance at the Northwest School.

CLUB WORK FEATUREDAT WINTER SHOWS

Several new features have been added to the 4-H club program for the Winter Shows during the week of February 8-12 1932. Dairy calf club members will have an opportunity to compete with dairy demonstrations and dairy judging teams on Thursday, February 11. The Red River Valley Dairy-men's association is sponsoring both of these contests, paying the railroad fare and expenses to the five outstanding demonstration teams and to the first eight counties reporting judging teams.

The livestock showmanship contest for dairy and beef club members has been keenly contested in past years. This year, the sheep and pig club members will be given an opportunity to compete in a similar contest.

Railroad fare for exhibitors and freight on livestock will be paid as in former years. A special effort will be made to house the boys and girls at a nominal price. The Northwest School 4-H club will entertain visiting club members on two evenings, one evening with a play and the other with a recreational program.

The 4-H Club premium list will be ready for distribution in the near future. Write H. A. Pflughoeft, District Club Leader, Crookston, for information.

RECORD ENTRIES EXPECTED IN FARM CROPS SECTION

A large exhibit of crops is expected for the annual Farm Crops show to be held during the week of the Red River Valley Winter Shows. Nearly all county fairs in this district were crowded for room to display their crop exhibits last summer. Quality, too, was exceptionally high. The State Fair and the International Hay & Grain show had an unusually large number of entries. Superintendents in charge are preparing for record exhibits at the forthcoming show.

The classes and awards are the same as for last year. There is a class for practically every farm crop grown in this section except sugar beets and a class for every type of exhibitor. Boys and girls will find classes in the club department and they may also enter duplicate samples in the open classes. Amateur exhibitors will find classes distinct from professionals. Seed growers have a class for bulk samples of wheat, oats, barley, flax, corn, alfalfa, and sweet clover. There is also a class for each county in the district in which only exhibitors from one county compete among themselves.

There are no entry fees. One sample is sufficient to compete in a county class, the open class, and the amateur class. Entries into all classes to which the exhibitor is entitled are made by the entry clerks at the show. The samples must arrive not later than Saturday, February 6, since judging begins Sunday morning. For further information, address R. S. Dunham, T. M. McCall, or H. A. Pflughoeft, Northwest School, Crookston, Minnesota.

FACULTY ASSISTWITH MANY FAIRS*AND MEETINGS

Members of the Northwest School faculty have spent a busy season serving as judges at state and county fairs, and attending community meetings, and other special gatherings through Northwestern Minnesota.

In addition to addressing a number of community clubs, Superintendent A. A. Dowell judged the beef cattle at the North Dakota State Fair, Grand Forks, and both horses and cattle at the Minnesota State Fair.

Professor T. M. McCall judged at the North Dakota State Fair, Grand Forks, as well as at Hallock, Thief River Falls, Baudette, Bagley, and St. Vincent. He also addressed the Maple Bay Community club at Maple Bay and the Lakeview Community club at Fertile.

Professor R. S. Dunham's schedule included judging crops exhibits at Ada, Fertile, Warren, Mahnomen, Roseau, Thief River Falls, Detroit Lakes, Fosston, and Bagley.

Professor O. M. Kiser judged livestock at Warren, Hallock, Mahnomen, Detroit Lakes, Bagley, and St. Vincent, while Professor A. M. Pilkey's fair schedule included Ada, Fertile, Warren, Hallock, Roseau, Thief River Falls, Baudette and Fosston.

The school has also had many calls for assistance in connection with the women's exhibits at the various fairs. Miss Retta Bede judged at Ada, Fertile, Hallock, Roseau, and Thief River Falls, in addition to judging the demonstration held in connection with the Clearwater County achievement day. Miss Fanny Lippitt judged the women's work at the Fosston fair.

R. J. Christgau and George Wight were occupied largely with the inspection of projects carried on at home by Northwest School students during the summer months. This work has taken them into every community in Northwestern Minnesota. They report unusual interest on the part of both old and prospective students, the only difficulty being a shortage of funds due to prevailing prices for agricultural products. Mr. Christgau also judged at the Roseau fair and spoke before the Maple Bay Community club, while Mr. Wight judged at Ada and St. Vincent, and assisted with the Ada and Warren Achievement day programs.

Registrar Mlinar found time to call on a few home project students and to attend the Ottertail County Club camp, in addition to his regular duties as Registrar and Librarian.

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY HELD ON ARMISTICE DAY

Speakers at the special Armistice Day program held at the Northwest School November 11, included A. M. Foker and Denic C. McGenty, members of the school faculty. Mr. Foker reviewed the part played by Northwest School students in the Great War, placing special emphasis on the eight young men who paid the supreme sacrifice. He also explained the significance of the beautiful granite memorial that stands at the entrance to the Campus.

Mr. McGenty chose for his subject, "Where Peace Abides" and stressed the importance of the people of the United States joining hands with other leading World powers in a move to maintain World peace. "Though the World War stands out vividly in the minds of the present generation, it will be but history to the oncoming youth, who will be charged with the responsibilities of tomorrow," said Mr. McGenty. "Youth must be taught the importance of preventing war by cultivating the spirit of brotherly love."

PLEASING LYCEUM PROGRAM

The first lyceum number of the year was presented in the school auditorium during October, when Eugene Laurant, "The Man of Many Mysteries," presented an elaborate and lavish entertainment of magic, mystery, and impersonations.

For years Mr. Laurant has presented a full evening program on the finest lyceum and college courses throughout the country. During the past two years he has appeared in over two hundred colleges, high schools, and private schools, with a special program arranged for assemblies. For twenty years he has been a headline attraction on the great chautauqua programs in the United States and Canada.

Early in December the DeWillo Concert company presented a special musical program under the direction of DeWillo Semerau. This organization is composed of Mr. Semerau, who performed on a concertina grand; LaNaomi Coffin, violinist, and Mrs. Semerau, soprano and pianist.

Both programs were well received by faculty, students and guests.

Other lyceum numbers to be presented during the year include Robert O. Briggs, the Filipino Varsity Four, and Jessie Rae Taylor.

AVERY AWARDED RUETTELL SWEATER

To Captain Kenneth Avery goes the honor of being the winner of the Ruettell Clothing Company's honor sweater awarded each year to the most valuable man on the football team. The award and announcement was made by Captain Mickle Bang, representing the Ruettell Clothing Company, at the Awards assembly held Thursday, December 18. That Avery was the popular choice for this high honor was indicated by the applause that greeted the announcement. Avery has been one of the mainstays on Aggie football teams for the past four years. He was honored with the captaincy in his fourth year, and throughout the 1931 season used excellent judgment in leading his teammates.
